BRULE FOUND GUILTY

And Sentenced to 3 Months in Jail and $250 Fine.

When the Court assembled yesterday morning there was standing room only. Judge Murphy opened the argument by holding that the Court had no jurisdiction and that the offense if any should be proceeded against by indictment.
The attorney read a long list of authorities on the case and continued to the noon recess. Gen. Clark opened by showing that the case as it was an act committed sufficiently near the Court to hamper the proper administration of justice.
In reply to General Clark's argument he went after Langevin with renewed vigor. He held that the witness could not be believed, that he had coerced his wife and that his son had also got some of the money.
Will you send this man to prison and humiliate his wife and family because this corrupt perjurer says that he gave him money.
His honor said:
If there was any doubt in my mind as to the propositions that have been discussed I would take this matter under advisement. I had hopes that this defendant would be able to prove his innocence, but he has not.
If it were a question of veracity between this defendant and Mr. Langevin I should not hesitate one moment to dismiss the case. I think the conduct of Langevin since the beginning of this case has been reprehensible and I cannot find words sufficient to express my opinion of him, but in every instance he was corroborated; even Coffin corroborated him as to the time he was there. I think the remarks about Mrs. Langevin was entirely uncalled for and those against the son, who says that he was worried and went to the Sheriff's office to find his father. Both made a fine appearance, equal to the appearance of any witness produced to impeach a Mr. Langevin. The Court did not consider Langevin's testimony impeached because he has reason to believe that he told the truth.
It is a fact self evident that Langevin would not have concealed himself unless he was paid for doing so and as he said, he wished to make a good job and he got well paid for it. So far as the absolute facts in this case are concerned I have no doubt but what the accused is guilty, but the only question existing is my power with reference to punishing him.
Mr. Brule, your reputation for honesty has been excellent in the past, but there is no doubt in my mind as to your guilt. I have no desire to be harsh with you indeed my whole person revolts against it and I sincerely regret that you should have brought this trouble upon you and more especially a police officer whose duty it is to preserve peace and quiet in a community to be engaged in such a business as secreting witnesses to defeat the ends of justice, you should have known better, and you did know better.
I will not impose a heavy sentence upon you, you may consider it heavy, but for the extent of the offense I think it is light. I sentence you to three months imprisonment in the county jail of Storey county and to pay a fine of $250, and that you shall remain in jail until it is paid. You are now delivered to the custody of the Marshal.
The Court then adjourned until 10 o'clock Monday morning.
Our Star Shines.
Nevada's political star today shines brighter with the lustre of patriotism than that of any other State in the Union, because of her independent position since the election in 1892. In that year she threw off her yoke of supplication which she had worn for years, and raised aloft the banner of independence which since then has floated to the breeze as a significant indication of her action in the future, all reports by the band of Hessians in the Western part of the State to the contrary. In the contest in 1896 Nevada will be found as a leader in the further strike for liberty and independence from the gold trust of Europe and America, as commanded by Grover Cleveland and John Sherman and followed by the Republican press and party camp followers in Nevada. Our banner will never be furled until victory is won.—Silver State.
Coffin swears that he was seeking witnesses in the Heney case in June. Heney was not indicted until August. Coffin was taking a very active hand in the case before his prospective client was indicted or needed an attorney. He was getting (according to his own story) witnesses for the prosecution. It will be seen that the slaughter of Heney was deliberately planned several months before the bullock was fat enough to kill.

Louis James sa "Macbeth"
The appearance of Louis James at the Opera House next Tuesday evening in Shakespeare's tragedy of "Macbeth," promises to be one of the greatest theatrical attractions ever seen in this city. The tragedy will be magnificently mounted, the company carrying a car load of scenery, and with the very strong company Mr. James brings the patrons of the theatre can look forward to a treat. As "Macbeth" Mr. James stands without a peer on the English speaking stage. He realizes fully this mystical Thane with his semi-barbarous nature and qualities.
Mr. James' company is an excellent one. Miss Alma Kruger will be seen as Lady Macbeth. She is a young woman of rare beauty and personal magnetism, and has attracted attention throughout the country owing to her great ability and resemblance to Mary Anderson. The company numbers twenty members.
The advance sale for "Macbeth" is large, and several theatre parties are being formed to witness the great tragedian next Tuesday evening.

No Unlawful Coining.

A count on the silver dollars in the Mint of 1893, shows that the proper amount is on hand minus what the books show was paid out. Every dollar is accounted for as far as the Mint is concerned. The officers in charge that year are fully exonerated. The presence of $80,000 silver dollars of that date in the State Treasury in 89 sacks of $1,000 each is still in need of explanation.

The Home Investigation.

The Home investigation reveals the fact that there is trouble between Miss Moore the teacher and the Deebes. The latest phase of the trouble is that long petitions have been put in evidence from Genoa. Some of these petitions set forth the assertion that Miss Moore is of no account whatever as a teacher and a lot more that she is, without exception, the best teacher on the coast.

CHEAP CUSTOM WORK A DECEPTION.

A style of tailoring is rapidly gaining headway which is but an imposition upon the consumer and a detriment to the workman. The cheap custom work or what is called "special order work," is a shrewd dodge for the purpose of deceiving the customer into the belief that he is obtaining custom work at ready made prices. The real worth of custom work lies in the exactness of the fit, and the thoroughness in which it is made. Cheap custom work is therefore inferior to ready made work.
Large concerns, some also engaged in ready made work have grown up of late and depend for patronage upon retail stores, and have numerous agents scattered everywhere soliciting orders and gain trade because of the strikingly cheap prices offered for goods made to order. As a rule these agents seldom obtain an order twice from the same person.
It is about time that this scheme was exposed to the people and ABE COHN of the EMPORIUM shows up the fraud. If you want clothes that fit and are tried on as often as is necessary call at the EMPORIUM Court House Building, Carson City, Nevada.
